Re: United States v. Helbran et. al., 19-cr-497 (NSR); defendant, Mordechay Malka

Dear Judge Román and Magistrate Judge Krause:

I write regarding the above captioned matter as standby counsel for pro se defendant Mordechay Malka. Mr. Malka is scheduled for a bail hearing before Magistrate Judge Krause on April 19, 2022. I understand that other defendants in this case have been permitted to bring the laptops they use in jail with them to court proceedings. Mr. Malka requests the issuance of an Order allowing to bring with him, from the Westchester County Jail to and into the Courthouse, his laptop computer and an external hard drive containing discovery materials, for use during the bail proceeding.

The discovery and case materials are voluminous and Mr. Malka has utilized the laptop for review and organization of those materials continuously during his ongoing trial preparations and in preparation for his bail hearing.

Thank you for your consideration.

APPLICATION GRANTED. Mordechay Malka may bring his laptop computer and his external hard drive into the Courthouse on April 19, 2022 for use during the bail hearing. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motion at ECF No. 542.

Respectfully submitted,

Mordechay Malka
